

Consumers have signed up so that they don't get annoying phone calls. They always have the choice to get off the no contact list if they so choose. Please do not allow the laws to become less restrictive.